

OFFBEAT NEWCASTLE NIGHTLIFE

Australian Traveller

Tuesday 1st November 2022

475 words

Page 41 | Section: General

972cm on the page

In partnership with Visit Newcastle

OFFBEAT NEWCASTLE NIGHTLIFE

It may be Australia's second-oldest city but NEWCASTLE sure doesn't act like it, with an ECLECTIC dining and drinking scene that keeps the city BUZZING into the night.

The multimillion-dollar makeovers of two of Newcastle's favourite watering holes, THE CRITERION and THE GREAT NORTHERN HOTEL, really raised the bar for the city's after-dark offerings. Since then, a swathe of cool bars, restaurants and brewhouses have cemented the city's reputation for epic nightlife.

Really tapping into the speakeasy trend, you'll need a code to enter COAL AND CEDAR. With no signage and no doorbell, it's just like the good ol' prohibition days. Staying subterranean, THE UNDERGROUND is located under THE GRAND HOTEL, another pub that's been given a loving transformation; be transported to the 1920s on Tuesdays when live jazz completes the scene. Sticking to the same era, BAR MELLOW is a wine and cocktail bar housed in a heritage 1920s building known as Bank Corner, offering a snack menu featuring olives, cheese platters and cured meats.

From small bar to small-batch brewing, METHOD BREWING, the city's newest craft brewery, has settled in to the West End and is the passion project of three local blokes. Drop in for a schooner and a bite from the food trucks. Over in Merewether, MODUS BREWING has 36 beers on tap, alongside a casual menu of pub fare with a Mexican twist. The sleek brewery offers tours for grown-ups and a playground for the kids.

Refined dining is also on the menu in Newcastle, and there's a strong focus on local and seasonal produce. Tucked away in Wickham, with an aesthetic inspired by Venice Beach, FLOTILLA was awarded a 2022 Australian Good Food Guide Chef's Hat. Meanwhile, longtime favourite SUBO dons two Chef Hats for its six-course menu in an understated setting. For a more homely approach, LOCK'S PADDOCK pays tribute to an old stonemason's yard, featuring a country-style interior and share menu.

Dine, drink and stay in your choice of two of the city's newest luxe hotels. A 1970s Brutalist-style former council building is now the CRYSTALBROOK KINGSLEY; its top-level restaurant, ROUNDHOUSE, comes with arguably the best views in the city, accompanied by a modern Australian menu. And QT NEWCASTLE, in the 113-year-old heritage-listed former David Jones building, boasts an uber-chic rooftop bar, perfect for sunset drinks with its large selection of whiskies, sake and gin. It's a list almost as extensive as Newcastle's nightlife itself.

Find more of offbeat Newcastle at visitnewcastle.com.au

CLOCKWISE FROM LEFT: Visit Flotilla for Californian vibes; And an award-winning menu; Or tasty cocktails: The Great Northern Hotel; Find Insta-worthy fare at Lock's Paddock; Dessert is served at Roundhouse; Harbour views at QT Newcastle's rooftop bar.

WORDS: MEGAN ARKINSTALL; PHOTOGRAPHY: DAVID GRIFFEN (LOCK'S PADDOCK)