Fiume Rooftop Bar at Crystalbrook Vincent Hotel has views to match the food.

Beneath the steel girder underbelly of the Story Bridge, Fiume has one of the best views in Brisbane, overlooking the river and the city skyscrapers. It's the perfect lofty, breeze-catching oasis from which to observe the hustle of Howard Smith Wharves too.

From 10am on Sundays, you can take a table among the greenery and graze through a set menu of sweet and savoury options for $110, including mix your own mimosas, bellini and champagne cocktails.

There's also the possibility to upgrade for an extra $30 to include three signature cocktails; a Bloody Mary, the Aperol-based "Sunday Bliss" or a martini made on Tamborine Mountain Distillery's limoncello. Or swap out the cocktails for bottomless Taittinger champagne.
